

Review Rules for the Journal of Japan Association for Earthquake Engineering

Established on December 7, 2012

Revised on October 10, 2019

1. Objective

These rules shall apply to review of submitted manuscripts to the Journal that is provided by Article 4, Paragraph 1, Item 3 in the articles of the Japan Association for Earthquake Engineering (JAEE).

2. Reviews According to the Submitted Category

Submitted manuscripts shall be reviewed according to the submitted category as per Article 3 of the Submission Rules for the Journal of JAEE.

3. Review Criteria

Submitted manuscripts that do not have political or commercial intent shall qualify for review.

3.1 Decision for Technical Papers/Technical Reports

For Technical Papers and Technical Reports, the decision shall be made in the following four types.

- (1) Accepted: Some wording or minor corrections are needed, but it is possible to publish it almost in its present form.
- (2) Conditionally accepted: Some corrections are needed to publish (such as correcting obvious wording or stylistic issues, or adding explanations), but a second peer review is not required.
- (3) Second review required: Corrections are needed to publish, and a second peer review is required to assess whether appropriate corrections have been made before determining its acceptance.
- (4) Rejected:
 - i) Technical Papers: It lacks novelty, originality, usefulness, reliability, possibility for further development, and/or others.
 - ii) Technical Reports: It lacks novelty, usefulness, reliability, and/or others.

3.2 Decision for Technical Notes, Discussions, Overviews/Invited Papers

For Technical Notes, Discussions, Overviews/Invited Papers, the decision shall be made in the following three types.

- (1) Accepted: It is possible to publish in its present form.
- (2) Conditionally accepted: Some wording or minor corrections are needed.
- (3) Rejected:
 - i) Technical Notes: It lacks usefulness or reliability.

- ii) Discussions: Its content of the discussion is inappropriate, or significantly lacks objectivity.
- iii) Overviews/Invited Papers: Its content deviates from the theme of the special issue, or includes extremely biased experiences or opinions.

Table: Submission Categories and Decision Type

Submission Category	Outcome
	Accepted	Conditionally accepted	Second review required	Rejected
Technical Papers, Technical Reports	Applicable	Applicable	Applicable	Applicable
Technical Notes, Discussions, Overviews/Invited Papers	Applicable	Applicable	Not applicable	Applicable

Supplementary Rules

- 1) These rules shall be effective upon approval of JAEE as a public interest incorporated association by the Prime Minister.
- 2) The approval date is May 1, 2013.
- 3) Revisions approved by the Board on October 10, 2019 shall be effective starting November 1, 2019.